To whom it may concern,

SBI Insurance Group Co., Ltd.

Please be aware of fraudulent investment solicitations using fake accounts or fake advertisements.

There have been cases in which individuals impersonating SBI Group companies or their officers and employees have solicited investments in financial products through social networking services such as LINE, Facebook, Instagram, and X (formerly Twitter), as well as via email and online advertisements.

In particular, multiple cases have been confirmed in which fraudulent solicitations were made using the name of Mr. Yoshitaka Kitao, Representative of the SBI Group.

Please note that neither our company nor any other SBI Group company conducts investment solicitations for financial products through social networking services such as LINE, email, or online advertisements. We urge you to exercise extreme caution.
